

Become a Property Manager

Benefit from the know-how and reputation of a company that is an expert in concierge services and seasonal property management in order to build up your clientele and earn an attractive income

If you would like to join our team of independent Property Manager, contact us : joinus@leggettpm.fr

I. Leggett Property Management

Who are we?

Leggett Property Management is a professional property management company offering a full rental & management service to second home owners throughout France.

Our Mission:

To accompany our clients in the global management of their second home by offering them a complete range of services.

Our Vision:

“Every second home owner should be able to find a trusted person nearby to meet all their needs”

- The customer is at the centre of our concerns
- The quality of our services is impeccable
- We are passionate about what we do
- Alone we go faster, together we go further

2. Property Manager

What is a Property Manager at LPM?

Our Property Managers offer a personalised service to owners who wish to delegate their caretaking and seasonal rental management concerns. You will build up a portfolio of property owners and manage their concierge and seasonal rental management services. You will be a self-employed entrepreneur or equivalent, with initial successful experience in the real estate or tourism sector, and you will have demonstrated your organisational skills, your sense of service and your commercial potential. You have excellent interpersonal skills, you know how to adapt and you have a very good level of French, this job is for you!

Your role

For our “concierge” offer

- create and manage a portfolio of properties, on behalf of owner clients
- marketing of our services, including bespoke client offers
- developing partnerships with local service providers (gardeners, pool maintenance, artisans etc.)

For our “seasonal rental” offer (in addition to the points above)

- taking on rental mandates, taking photos, writing ads, management of the enquiries
- arranging for reception of holidaymakers, technical assistance during their stay, management of departures

You will be able to draw upon all of our Head Office resources, including bespoke training and ongoing support, marketing, sales leads and administration. You will work under our “carte professionnelle” (carte G).

Your profile: Independent sales agent

Fluent in French

Commission-based remuneration

Driving licence & vehicle required for the activity

3. Leggett Immobilier

Why Leggett Immobilier?

Leggett Property Management is a sister company of Leggett Immobilier. By joining our Housekeeping team at Leggett Property Management, you will become part of the leading real estate agency in the French market!

Some figures

- 20 million euros pa turnover
- 80 employees in Head Office, 12 offices, 700 agents mandataires
- 11 000+ listings across the country
- In the top 10 networks in France
- One of the 10 fastest growing property consultancies in Europe

With a national presence, Leggett Immobilier continues to grow in new markets. It is a family firm that values trust, professionalism and local knowledge.

4. Why should you join us?

- You benefit from the reputation of the Leggett Real Estate Group
- We provide you with all the resources available to the group (sales leads, international marketing, etc.)
- You benefit from support at all times and free training
- You work with our professional card (G card)
- You have access to high-performance tools (business software, monitoring and management tools, professional email, etc.)
- You join a growing company, offering you opportunities for professional development
- You will join a dynamic team with human values
- You will retain the independence of your status while enjoying a number of advantages

Become a Property Manager for Leggett Property Management !

5. Stay in touch

Are you interested in this challenge?
Contact us as soon as possible!

Send us your CV with a cover letter : joinus@leggettpm.fr

